

Now Accepting Applications for the 2009 – 2010 EXEMPLARY GUIDANCE PRACTICE AWARD

The Nassau Counselors' Association will recognize a noteworthy accomplishment of a counseling staff in Nassau County Schools by presenting an award for outstanding guidance practice. We are very much interested in any and all new ideas you may be implementing in your school, and will award a prize to the one judged to be the best in June 2010. The Exemplary Guidance Practice Committee has established the following guidelines in its consideration of nominees' programs or activities:

1. Innovative
2. Specific
3. Currently in practice
4. Easily adaptable to other schools

Committee members will visit schools whose entries have met the above-mentioned guidelines. Visits will take place in early spring. Applications will be accepted until March 24, 2010.

The counselor(s) from the winning school will be asked to present their program at LICAC.

In order to nominate your school for the 2009-2010 Exemplary Guidance Practice Award, fill in the information below and return this form along with a detailed written description of the guidance practice and all related materials to the address at the bottom. Please submit 5 copies of all materials including directions to your school.
