Candidates eligible for the award cannot be directly responsible for supervising the secondary or post-secondary counselors or human development specialist(s) in their institution. The basis for the nomination should meet the following requirements:*
 - Believe in the value of counselors and counseling services
 - Evidence of that belief through reliable actions
 - Demonstrated support of the use of counselors in a manner consistent with their defined roles

- ✓ COUNSELOR OF THE YEAR: Designed to recognize the outstanding support rendered to the counseling practice by counselors and human development specialists in Nassau County. Candidates eligible for the award should work with elementary, middle and/or high school students. The basis for the nomination should meet the following requirements:
 - Must be a member of NCA for the prior and present year of nomination
 - Outstanding personal and professional qualities
 - Contribution to the field of counseling or human development
 - Initiative of innovative or unique programs
 - Involvement in professional activities

- ✓ COLLEGE COUNSELOR OF THE YEAR: Designed to recognize an individual from within the post-secondary college counseling setting who has consistently gone above and beyond their job description to give service to the counseling profession as a whole. College counseling includes admissions, financial aid, student services, transfer advising, leadership of a counselor education program, and a whole array of other important administrative roles. The basis for the nomination should include demonstrations of the following:
 - Must be a member of NCA for the prior and present year of nomination
 - Outstanding personal and professional qualities
 - Demonstrated initiative in the advancement of college counseling profession both within their own organization and in the counseling community at large
 - Rich history of leadership, mentoring, and professional development for their team
 - Involvement in professional activities

- ✓ EXEMPLARY PRACTICE GUIDANCE AWARD: Designed to recognize a noteworthy accomplishment of a counseling staff in Nassau County Schools by presenting an award for outstanding guidance practice. The implemented idea must be innovative, specific, currently in practice and easily adaptable to other schools. A detailed description of the guidance practice and any supporting materials must be submitted with the nomination. The counselor(s) from the winning school will be encouraged to present their program at LICAC. The selected program will be highlighted on the NCA website.

NASSAU COUNSELORS'

ASSOCIATION

- ✓ MINI-GRANT AWARD: Designed to award up to $1,000 in grant money to worthy counseling programs that show time, training, and materials needed for successful initiation, completion, and replication. The purposes of this program are to:
 - Encourage the implementation of expansion of innovative counseling programs or projects
 - Promote the positive image of school counselors and admission counselors and the field of counseling through public relations and new ideas
 - Put available funds to use in a professional manner

The counselor(s) from the winning program(s) will be encouraged to present their program(s) at LICAC. The selected program(s) will be highlighted on the NCA website.

- ✓ STU AGINS MEMORIAL SERVICE AWARD: Designed to recognize an individual who has been very much involved in service to the Nassau Counselors' Association and to the counseling community. Named for Stu Agins, a veteran counselor and guidance administrator for many years, recognized for his contribution to the field of counseling and his dedication to serving the counseling community, this award embodies recognition of service to the profession and our counseling organization. Stu was devoted to working with, for, and in support of school counselors. The work counselors do with young people was something that Stu held very close to his heart. He immersed himself as a very active participant in every facet of the Nassau Counselors' Association. It was only natural that Stu served as NCA President in 1983-1984, a role he approached with sincere integrity and great pride for all of the members of the NCA organization. Candidates nominated for this award must meet the following criteria:
 - Outstanding personal and professional qualities
 - Wide and active participation in a broad array of counseling activities
 - Demonstration of unique contributions to the support, advancement, and advocacy of the counseling profession and community
 - Long-standing and current membership in the Nassau Counselors' Association
 - A history of active Nassau Counselors' Association committee membership
 - A history of leadership within the Nassau Counselors' Association
